Disclosure of Amendments to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Ouster, Inc. (the "Company") approved an amended and restated Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (as amended and restated, the "Code"), applicable to all employees, officers, and directors of the Company. The Code became effective on October 29, 2026. Among other changes, it:

Clarifies that employees and directors are strictly prohibited from using confidential information for personal benefit or gain, including, but not limited to, using confidential information to trade or otherwise transact in prediction markets or event contracts.

Other modifications to the Code are of a technical, administrative, or non-substantive nature. The Code has been posted to the "Corporate Governance" section of the "Investors" page of the Company's website (investors.ouster.com). The amendments to the Code do not result in any waiver, explicit or implicit, of any provision of the Code as in effect prior to these amendments.

****